Dispatched as a signal 62 in progress, the complainant advised that the perps had fled into a nearby vacant house. Unfortunately, the 7th dist. was not able to immediately dispatch a unit, and over 10 minutes passed before a patrol unit arrived. By then, the perps were gone. The responding unit confirmed the burglary, and requested crime lab under item number 33249. However, before being able to clear the scene, it was brought to the attention of the officer that their was a second house that was hit on the same block.
